Your personality

You will find that the interpretation of your chart is written in simple language, uncluttered by astrological jargon. If a statement appears to contradict another statement, then you exhibit these opposite qualities at different times in your life. For example, a statement that you are highly sociable and gregarious and a statement that you prefer solitude seemingly contradict each other; this means that you vacillate, and need both sociability and solitude at different times.

The astrological factor that the interpretation is based on is also given. The astrological factor is given for the benefit of astrologers and students of astrology. If you are not a student of astrology, then obviously the factor will not be meaningful to you, and you can ignore it.

If you find this interpretation of your birth chart interesting and informative, you might want to discuss your birth chart with a professional astrologer to learn more about the astrological influences on your life.

Your birth chart interpretation is based on the positions of the planets at the time of your birth. For the benefit of students of astrology, these positions, along with other technical information, are listed below:

Introduction

Your fundamental needs, values, and orientation towards life are symbolized by the four astrological elements. Each person has their own unique balance of these four basic energies: fire (warmth, inspiration, enthusiasm), earth (practicality, realism, material interests), air (social and intellectual qualities), and water (emotional needs and feelings).

Your "elemental make-up" is described below. Remember that most people are "unbalanced" or lopsided, and if you are lacking or deficient in a certain element (or elements), it simply means that you need to consciously develop that aspect of yourself to learn to appreciate and/or to work harder in that dimension of life.

Sometimes we overvalue the element that we are least endowed with, sensing it as a lack within ourselves, but more often we neglect or ignore it. The qualities described below will be reiterated and explained in more detail in the following chapters.

Astrological influences analyzed in Chapter 1:

Water and Fire are strong (F, E, A, W Scores = 7, 5, 2, 6)

Air is weak (F, E, A, W Scores = 7, 5, 2, 6)

Earth is weak (F, E, A, W Scores = 7, 5, 2, 6)

How You Approach Life and How You Appear To Others

The following is a description of your basic stance towards life, the way others see you, the way you come across, the face you show to the world. In Chapter 3 you will read about the "The Inner You: Your Real Motivation", which describes the kind of person you are at heart and where your true priorities lie. Read this chapter and the next one and compare them - there may be significant differences between them, in which case "the inner you" may not shine through and others are in for some surprises when they get to know you at a more than superficial level. This chapter describes the costume you wear, your role in life, while Chapter 3 talks about the real person inside the costume.

Modest, unobtrusive, and often rather quiet or shy, you are a person who is content to be in the background or to serve as an assistant, in the supporting role rather than in the lead. You are quite humble in your own assessment of yourself; you seek perfection, with a tendency to be overly self-critical. No matter how well you do something, you always see the flaws in it and how it could be improved. Often you will simply refuse to attempt something because you feel you cannot meet your own high standards.

You have an eye for detail and get upset when something is not done just so, usually something others consider rather inconsequential or trivial. You are hard to please and your relationships with others may suffer because of this. You also have refined sensitivities and are very discriminating and particular in your choice of foods, clothes, friends, artwork, etc. Order in your environment is very important to you.

You step into situations rather cautiously, and not without realistically assessing all of the risks and potential advantages involved. Unless something is a safe bet, you are unlikely to dive into it. You tend to underestimate your own capacities and to lack confidence and trust in life, which inhibits your spontaneity. Worrying is a bad habit of yours. On the other hand, you rarely fall flat on your face and what you do, you do very well.

Others see you as a self-sufficient and rather self-contained person. You have a strong sense of propriety. Politeness, good manners, and correct behavior are important to you. Your clear, cool, objective and unemotional attitude is apparent to others first, and though you are really quite helpful and caring, you do not radiate much sympathy so that others may not see the helpful side as readily. You may seem more businesslike and factual, and also more conservative, than you really are at heart. You are the person others might go to for technical advice or an unbiased opinion, but not for emotional support.

You are keenly observant, intelligent, and have a great desire for learning and for self-improvement, but you are not especially ambitious and are often satisfied in a rather simple, unglamorous position in life.

The image you project to the world, and the person you really are inside, are considerably different. So much so that at times you may feel that people don't see or know the real you. They respond to the face they see, and the initial impression you make may actually be misleading. Within yourself, also, there is much complexity and tension, and you often feel that you need to change yourself in significant ways or that you continually hold back essential aspects of yourself.

Your emotional responses, feelings, and prejudices come across to others quite clearly and you could be seen as a rather moody, inconsistent creature. On the other hand, you aren't impersonal or removed, so people are drawn to confide in you. At times you may wish you weren't so easy to read.

You appear contained, and perhaps wary or mistrustful as well. You watch your step, and frequently withdraw if your environment doesn't feel welcoming and safe. As a result, you may seem much more conservative than you actually are. You fear making mistakes in social situations, and are extremely sensitive to criticism or rejection. As you mature, you're likely to grow in confidence, because you'll learn to depend more on your own evaluation of yourself.

There is an air of universal sympathy, gentleness, and nonjudgmental acceptance about you which draws people in need to you. Because you have a good deal of intuitive insight or psychic perceptiveness, you're able to say or do just the right thing for them. You need to beware of fostering dependency in those people, however.

You have penetrating insight into people and a keen eye and ear for the hidden, unspoken, behind-the-scenes elements in life. You may seem intense and make other people a bit uncomfortable at times. There is also a sexual quality in your manner which can be quite alluring, in a subtle way.

Your Real Motivation

Although you are polite, modest, and circumspect in manner (as described in the previous chapter), you actually have a lot of courage and drive, as discussed below. You may feel like Clark Kent at times! Underneath your quiet, unassuming appearance is a much more dynamic individual.

You are a person who thrives on challenge, and you often feel that you must battle your way through life, depending upon no one and nothing but your own strength, intelligence, and courage. You believe in being totally honest, true to oneself and one's own vision and convictions, even if that means standing alone. Honesty, integrity, personal honor, and authenticity are your gods, and you have no sympathy for weakness of character in others.

You crave the freedom to do things in your own way, and you work very well independently. Cooperating with others or carrying out another's will is not your style. You like to be the chief -or to go it alone.

You love action and if others are settling down into a nice, comfortable little rut, then you are always ready to stir things up, do something new, make changes, bring in some fresh blood. Routine and sameness are like death to you. You are not afraid of trying something that's never been done before, and even though you may be seen as a fool sometimes, you also discover, invent, and initiate things that others will later emulate. Taking risks and following your own star are the breath of life for you, and you wilt (or get very frustrated and angry) if you cannot do this.

You are spontaneous, impulsive, direct, enthusiastic, and assertive. You believe in the power of positive thinking and positive action, and you think of yourself as a strong person -even invincible. You hate being ill or in any way in a position of dependency. Accepting your own human limitations and emotional needs is often difficult for you.

You are basically aggressive in your attitudes and have less facility in the receptive arts of relating to others, picking up subtle messages and nuances, listening, nurturing, and harmonizing. Often you are so fired up about your own projects or goals that you inadvertently run over or ignore other people's feelings and interests. Being receptive and appreciative of others' contributions, ideas, and feelings would go a long way in improving your relationships. Your impatience to get on with things causes you to be rather insensitive, and to therefore alienate others unnecessarily. You also frequently try to accomplish your ends by using anger or some version of a temper tantrum. You would gain much by learning to slow down, relax, and just let things be sometimes, but your energetic, restless nature rarely allows you to do this.

You crave intense experiences and are attracted to aspects of life that are strange, unfathomable, or taboo. You may hide your interests or inclinations, except from those who know you very intimately. You are rarely content with yourself and your life, and you have an inner urge to be continually going farther or deeper than you ever have before. You also have a strong interest in social power and the role that money and economics play in people's lives.

You are a restless spirit, a bit self-willed, and you have a tendency to overstrain your nervous system. You are easily aroused and quick to explode when things don't meet your expectations. You are highly individualistic, resourceful and determined.

You probably have great intellectual ability and curiosity. You never seem to run out of ideas and always welcome the study of new subjects, the more abstract the better. But you also have the basic sense to translate abstract ideas into practical reality.

You have an intrinsic creative and artistic ability and an unusual sense of form. You also have a deep need for affection and can be quite intense when by inner compulsion you feel drawn to someone. Your relationships tend to be peculiar in some way.

You are polite and gallant and make a special effort to meet others half-way. You have the ability to give and receive love. Nurturing friendships, personal love relationships and social life is important to you.

Your physical energy is strong and you are able to make an extra effort and work quite hard at any task you want to do. You can act quickly and get a great deal accomplished in a hurry. But you also have a tendency to be reckless and accident-prone.

Your vitality is not up to par and your will-power a bit weak, making you vulnerable to swindle or deceit. Your inner discontent and casual attitude could easily lead you into dubious schemes. You should refrain from any activity that seems to be subversive.

You tend to be in a constant state of tension and seem to look for avenues to test your strength. You use all the energy at your disposal in order to succeed. Somewhat rebellious and inflexible, you fight any opposition or resistance you meet.

Your physique tends to be sensitive and your vitality may be a bit low. You are very impressionable and somewhat unrealistic. Sometimes your idealism could be confused or impractical, and you can be rebellious or else apathetic.

You tend to impose your will upon others in a rather ruthless way, but on the other hand may also be imposed upon by others yourself. You feel a constant need to fight for leadership and have a great desire to become a public figure.

Mental Interests and Abilities

You are more of a poet than a rational scientist, for your mind does not function in a strictly logical, linear fashion. The language of music, art, or poetry is natural to you, and you are also able to think in highly abstract and symbolic terms. Translating your thoughts and impressions into concrete, everyday language may be difficult for you at times and consequently you may appear less intelligent or at least less quick-witted and verbal than others. This was especially true of you as a child, and you probably daydreamed a good deal also. You are intuitive and are able to sense what others' thoughts and feelings are, even before they say anything to you. You often form an opinion about a person or situation without much factual knowledge of them, and your impressions are usually correct. You can be somewhat absent-minded and you become so immersed in your own thoughts that you overlook things in your immediate, tangible environment. You are extremely open-minded and believe that anything is possible. Intangible or spiritual forces seem just as real to you as anything in the concrete world. Your imagination and your sympathetic understanding of other people are two of your greatest gifts.

You are often involved in verbal exchanges, interviewing, discussing, debating, counseling, negotiating, getting and giving feedback, and sharing information. You are drawn to intelligent and verbal people, with whom you can communicate and from whom you can learn. You love to have an audience to hear your ideas, and you also appreciate eloquent presentations by others.

Moods, Feelings, Romance

Open and generous, you enjoy a wide circle of friends and acquaintances and you thrive on sociability and fellowship. You are adventurous, playful, freedom-loving, and always ready for a good time. You rarely allow obstacles or difficulties to keep you down, for no matter how bleak the past or present, you always expect a better, brighter future. In fact, you are uncomfortable with your own or other people's problems and emotional pain. You often try to "cheer up" or offer philosophical advice to those who are hurting, but unwittingly you avoid or ignore the emotions involved.

Friendship means a great deal to you, perhaps even more than love or romance. For you to be happy, your mate must be your best friend and encourage your aspirations and ideals. You also need a great deal of emotional freedom and mobility.

You have strong attachments to your past, the place where you grew up, your heritage, and family traditions. In fact, you may be unable to step out of the habits and roles you learned as a child. Your tie to your mother is very strong and you also seek mothering and protection from your spouse and other family members as well.

Positively, you are capable of enormous discipline and serious, sustained effort in whatever area you choose.

You crave very intense, deep, emotional relationships, and would even prefer a stormy, tumultuous relationship to one which is smooth but lacking vitality and passion. You love wholeheartedly and expect all-consuming, total devotion and attention from your partner. Casual, light relationships hold no appeal for you.

You are creative and ingenious and will put deep, feeling energy into your creations. But your emotional state is easily upset and you can be a fanatic in love. You tend to be possessive and have such intense needs that disappointments may be unavoidable.

You have artistic interests and may be attracted to people who are artists, are connected with artistic endeavors or interested in art. You are very sociable and feel more at home in beautiful surroundings.

Somewhat over-enthusiastic in matters of love, you could fall in love with the wrong person. You may be too selfless and have the illusion that your only need in a relationships is to make the other person happy, leading to disappointments and regrets.

It may be hard for you to love someone and to express your love for them. There seems to be a wall built up between you and others and you seem very cool to them. Your disposition is very reserved and withdrawn, making it difficult for people to approach you.

Your energy and initiative seems to be a bit weak and could frequently inhibit your sex life. Your unrealistic ideals about relationships could lead to disillusionment, and you may feel that real mortals are disappointing, and prefer your fantasies.

How You Achieve Your Goals

You are serious about your ambitions, and disciplined, dedicated, and tenacious in pursuing your objectives. Your drive and energy are directed toward practical material accomplishment and achieving concrete results. You also strive to be in a position of authority and social influence; you enjoy being the person who is in command.

You are hard-working and capable of foregoing immediate comfort in order to achieve your long-range goals. You can easily become a workaholic and are very responsible and conscientious about doing a thorough job.

Realistic and pragmatic, you are an excellent strategist. You attain success by formulating a conservative and workable plan and following through with it. You are not a gambler when it comes to attaining your goals; you depend on your own efforts and perseverance rather than good fortune. You have a natural shrewdness and instinct for business or organizational management.

It is not easy for you to show the world at large your angry or competitive side, but your family sees this side of you more often. Temper tantrums, tumultuous family relationships, or a great deal of competition between you and one or more of your relations is likely. You like to be the one in charge in your home and you put a lot of energy into making it the way you want it.

Your efforts to do something are likely to be half-hearted. You tend to get discouraged easily and may lack an incentive to work. Your sexual drive also may be somewhat low and you tend to be averse to physical exertion in general.

You have the ability to verbalize your feelings and perceptions well. Your judgment is keen and sharp, you are diplomatic and can express yourself in good language. You initiate conversations with people and are never at a loss for appropriate remarks.

You are optimistic, generous and enterprising, and have an enthusiastic outlook. You have a strong desire to make something of yourself and are likely to be successful. Almost any initiative that you take probably will work out as you want it to.

An inner conflict between the desire for greater opportunities and the desire to hold on to safe and predictable circumstances could make you somewhat discontent. You long for changes in your life, but may lack the tenacity to bring them about.

You may well have an unusual destiny or pivotal role to play in a drama that involves much more than your own personal ambitions and professional aims. This could involve uncovering secrets, bringing deception, cruelty, or injustice to light, or making fundamental changes in some field. Your work may also include dealing with life and death situations, crises, and emergencies. Somewhere along the way, fate may force your hand --and it may require some self-sacrifice on your part. On the other hand, your real work may be rather subtle -- a quiet transformation of a particular area or field. You are meant to do in-depth work.

Areas That You Enjoy

Your ability to empathize and identify with others makes you unwilling to take advantage of or hurt anyone. You care about the underdog. You may also be unusually impressionable or have highly developed psychic sensitivity.

You have a positive and constructive attitude toward work and what other people might consider drudgery. You enjoy helping people improve their lives, and the more service you render, the more benefits and rewards you find coming back to you. Promoting health in some manner is a very good avenue for you.

You have a great, wide-open sense of possibilities which allows extraordinary, even miraculous events to come into your life. A sense of divine grace, of being part of the flow of the universe, of communing with celestial realms or Beings, are all very natural to you. At the same time, you're not apt to go to extremes or lose your sense of perspective. You are also quite altruistic and giving, and ready to aid less fortunate people. A sense of gratitude and spiritual wealth is one of your finest attributes.

Areas That Challenge You Or Are Difficult For You

You have a critical, cynical attitude towards many religions and philosophies. Without realizing it, you prevent yourself from appreciating new viewpoints and attitudes. You are more rigid and dogmatic than you realize. Your approach may also be too intellectual or moralistic. You take your own political beliefs and spiritual philosophy very seriously, worrying and fretting if you are not 100% clear about some ideology or theory.

Your childhood or your relationship with your parents was restrictive, unloving, or unhappy in ways that may prevent you from allowing other people to get close to you in later life. You felt deprived in some manner, whether or not you actually were deprived in some way. Emotional separations or repression of your needs and feelings may typify your early life, at least as you remember it. Forgiving your parents and/or letting go of any resentments you have about the limitations you experienced early in your life is crucial. Also, you need to build your own solid foundation, and investing time and energy into your home, domestic relationships, and inner life can help you accomplish this.

You gain by becoming more aware of the rhythm of the seasons and the natural world, learning to slow down and allow life to unfold in its own time. Nurturing a garden, a child, or some other living, growing thing gives you a sense of inner balance.

You have a tendency to be deeply suspicious, to not take anything at face value, to see hidden agendas and dark motives even where none exist! Life does not have to be conflict all the time... learn to accept things as they are.

You also need to develop patience, peace and stability by grounding yourself in your daily work and acting in a consistent and reliable way towards others.

The arena you are most likely to wrestle with these issues is in developing a personal vision or philosophy of life, whether this be through religious or philosophical studies, a broadening education, or visiting and drawing upon the wisdom in distant lands or cultures. Cultivate the qualities described above in this endeavor. Long distance communication and involvement with foreigners is likely to be significant to you.

Originality and Imagination Areas Where You Are Creative, Unique, Unstable, or Compulsive

Your childhood or your relationship with your parents was unsettling or unstable in some way, so that you may never have felt that you had firm ground beneath your feet. One of your parents may have been unusual, eccentric, or an inconstant influence in your life. Abrupt changes in location or in family relationships may have made you feel insecure, but positively you were given more freedom and less pressure to conform to conventions, which enables you to be more of an individual and less tethered to restrictive ideas of how one "should" behave, feel, or live.

Your childhood and early home life were colored by a great deal of confusion or by people with unusually active imaginations, aspirations, or fantasies. It is difficult for you to see your childhood and your relationship with your parents in a clear, realistic light. You may search for the ideal, loving home you wish you had, or believe you had, when you were a child. Finding inner peace and a sense of emotional security within yourself is important to you.

You have a probing, penetrating mind and are highly analytical and critical in your thinking. Work that involves research, investigating mysteries or hidden causes, or deep study and analysis suits you very well.

You are also a convincing speaker, bringing others around to your own point of view by the intensity of your convictions.

Your Age Group

In this chapter we will discuss characteristics and traits of your generation. Of course, you may not share all of the characteristics of your generation, but you are greatly affected by the tone that is set by your generation.

The first topic is "The Subconscious and Emotional Drive of Your Age Group". In this section we will describe a deeply felt urge, even compulsion, of your age group. This deeply felt drive comes to the surface with great force and power, and consequently leaves in its wake considerable upheaval and change. The second topic is "The Ideals and Illusions of Your Age Group", that describes the dreams, fantasies, and spiritual aspirations of your age group. The third and last topic is "What is New and Different in Your Age Group", which describes areas in which your age group tends to be innovative, inventive, unusual, and also where it may be unstable and unreliable.

The characteristics described below may affect a group of people for anywhere from a few years to about 30 years. There are one or more different astrological factors described in each of the three sections below.

The Subconscious and Emotional Drive of Your Age Group

You are part of a 12 year group of people who have a complex and deep emotional side. Your age group has a great fascination for the mysteries of life, and members of your age group will make extraordinary breakthroughs in the understanding of life processes; major advances in biological sciences will open up new technological possibilities. Intensive probing into genetic structure and cellular processes will accelerate genetic engineering into new vistas. Your generation also probes the mysteries of birth and death, and members of your age group will even develop laboratories for forging new understanding of what happens at birth and death. Other breakthroughs will be made in the understanding of animal behavior and sexual activity. Archeological studies will unearth vast new insights into the history of man, and the exploration of the ocean will receive a new impetus, spurred by unusual and interesting findings made at the bottom of the sea.

Behind all of this work is the deep, probing, penetrating interest in the mysterious. There is a deep fascination with sex, power, and the occult as well. Hypnosis, karate, and other mental and physical training techniques are likely to be very popular with your age group. The love of mystery is also likely to bring a revival of mystery novels and movies; your age group will bring the macabre into current fashion and style.

You are an emotionally complex group, and you can be prone to some very strange behavior. Intrigue and mystery are exciting to your age group, and hopefully this does not get the better of you, causing you to act in a cruel or grotesque manner. There is a chance that crime, violence, and emotional disturbance will be relatively high in your age group, but hopefully your interest in the mysterious, strange, grotesque, and macabre will not manifest in this way.

The Ideals and Illusions of Your Age Group

You are part of a 14 year group of people who are conservative and traditional in spiritual aspirations and religious outlook. Your age group returns to some traditional basics in religion, and also traditional styles in music and art. Classical music and literature have a revival with your age group, and a great deal of inspiration is gained from the masters of arts, music, literature, and philosophy throughout history. Your age group is contemplative and reflective about religious matters and you take an objective and logical approach to religious issues. Many of you are cynics and critics of spiritual and metaphysical ideas.

Other age groups criticize your group for not having enough heart and compassion. Sometimes this is true and is evidenced by some unusually crafty and manipulative fraud and deception that occurs in the higher ranks of governments and large businesses.

You have a great, wide-open sense of possibilities which allows extraordinary, even miraculous events to come into your life. A sense of divine grace, of being part of the flow of the universe, of communing with celestial realms or Beings, are all very natural to you. At the same time, you're not apt to go to extremes or lose your sense of perspective. You are also quite altruistic and giving, and ready to aid less fortunate people. A sense of gratitude and spiritual wealth is one of your finest attributes.

The entire generation to which you belong has tremendous opportunities for spiritual rebirth and awakening. This will not be forced upon you or precipitated by unavoidable events, rather it comes from an inner yearning and a natural propensity to seek the depths.

What is New and Different in Your Age Group

You are part of a 7 year group of people who are extremely enterprising and forward-looking. You are optimists and explorers. Your age group shoots for the stars, figuratively and literally. Space exploration takes on new dimensions as your age group pushes fervently to the next frontier. There is a buoyant and youthful optimism and enthusiasm in your group, and you have your share of great discoveries as well as pipe dreams and disillusionment. The discoveries and contributions, however, are many, and more than compensate for the failures.

2017 Complete Year Forecast

Your Full Forecast Report

Your Astro-Forecast begins on the next page. If the time period for an interpretation is, for example, given as "July 1, 1993 (June 15, 1993 to July 15, 1993)", then it starts in mid-June, reaches greatest intensity around July 1, and ends in mid-July. The first date listed is the time when the influence has reached maximum strength; we can call this date the "peak date". The influence starts on the beginning date, gradually increases in strength until the peak date is reached, and then it gradually fades out until the ending date is reached. An influence may last for as little as a week to as long as half a year or so.

You may also notice that the same interpretation shows up periodically during the year; this is not unusual. In some cases the beginning and ending dates of the 2 influences are the same; the only difference between the 2 interpretations is the peak date. This means that this particular influence has two peak dates instead of one. It is even possible for there to be three or more peak dates for the same astrological influence. To eliminate redundant interpretations, you may be informed that the astrological influence also occurred earlier and that you should refer back to the previous occurrence of this interpretation.

You may be wondering what the funny abbreviations after the dates are. For example, you may see "Sat Conj Plu", "Ura Trine Nep", etc. These abbreviations are given for the benefit of astrologers and they show the astrological factor that is in effect.

We hope you enjoy your Astro-Forecast. For the benefit of astrologers, some technical details are given below.

Your Natal positions: Sun=9Ari ,Moon=11Sag ,Merc=17Pis ,Venu=26Ari ,Mars=1Cap ,Jupi=8Pis ,Satu=9Sag ,Uran=22Sag ,Nept=5Cap ,Plut=6Sco ,Node=1Tau

Please note that you will see that some of the dates have the same text and this is to remind you that these are on-going events in your life and that on these dates you are likely to be dealing with them.

Investigate anything you want to now, because the new realizations will be spectacular. Bargain hunting can prove wonderful as you can come up with some wonderful buys! Your will power is stronger than at other times and any improvements and changes that you have been wanting to make in your life can be instituted successfully now. Long time friends can become lovers under this transit.

An intuitive and psychic time fills this transit, full of wonderful insights. Outdated ideas and possessions that are no longer needed can be discarded and new attitudes about life can be adopted. You are extremely sensitive to your inner self and close personal relations are harmonious.

This transit favors research and forming new contracts or working for large groups of people or the masses rather than singular endeavors. Insight, compassion, detective work and having the inside scoop on something accompany this transit.

This is a great time to repair things that are a little run down and need TLC (Tender loving care).

Moon Conj Venu

This is a wonderful placement for caring for others or being less aggressive in your approach to your environment. Domestic matters will go well and poetry can be an alternative form of expression. You are in the mood for love and romance at this time. You will get along well with everyone and your present circumstances in relationships will be harmonious. New relationships can begin, if there is a more powerful transit to support it. Decorating can be a pleasant form of diversion.

You may find relations with others on again, off again, never seeming to settle into any stable routine and you can experience difficulties in expressing how you feel not only about yourself but others as well. You might notice some water on the knee which can be the source of discomfort, or some congestive problems as well.

Loneliness and depression can be your closest friends now and perhaps that is good because at these very deep times you are given the opportunity to soul search and make the corrections that make you a better person in some way. I have always been under the impression that when you have nothing else to do, look inward. Blocks in expressing yourself and a lack of appetite (sounds like spiritual fasting to me!) exist, but the digestive tract can offer some problems so be careful what you put into the body now. Vegetables and grains would be best. Oh my aching knees! Colds, chills, problems with the teeth and energy that is very low color this transit. Everything seems to have been hit by the STOP button and nothing is happening. Boy can that be frustrating! Finances and business matters can have you very concerned now and do not make any personal changes in your life or look for help in people in authority over you.

Difficulties with parents and authority figures are bound to pop up so handle them as best you can under the circumstances and your relationship with people will not be up to par until the transit ends. Business and financial ventures will experience slowdowns and you may want to withdraw and lick your wounds while not feeling very sympathetic to the problems of those around you.

Discrimination will be needed in all business practices and transactions to avoid dishonesty and difficult challenges face you for a few days. Prayer and meditation will be helpful, but spiritual confusion may develop. When talking to people (not at) don't have the mentality of a "baseball bat" when getting your point across and don't push others to accept your ways of thinking, you may not like the results of your actions.

Whatever you do keep your motives, intentions and dealings with others in any area honest, above board and on the right side of the law. You may choose to burn bridges to your past in favor of the future and new beginnings at this time.

Jealousy is a danger with this placement as well as desiring another persons material belongings or good fortune in some way. Intolerance of other peoples feelings will also be in the air so if at all possible do as much as you can for others without expecting anything in return. Chances are nothing will come in return anyway, but give it a try!

Reforming others comes under the gun of influences as well, so be careful of who you are trying to reform as well as your motives for doing so. Even though you aren't the authority here, that won't stop you from thinking you are.

Expect very radical changes in thinking and attitudes which may have you a bit baffled as well as those around you. Stress can come to family life now and there will be a real intolerance for people who enjoy being spontaneous. The emotional war that is taking place within you is taking it's toll on those close to you which can easily disrupt the domestic scene. You may notice some spasms of the stomach or ups and downs with your eyesight.

Here is where change is at its most unpredictable, as separations can suddenly occur from emotional bonds. Since the moon represents the emotions, the mother bond, the ties that bind us, then this is the time for removal either temporarily or permanently from present conditions. Those removals that are permanent allow you the freedom of being on your own whether wanted or not. Divorces and incidents of romantic disappointments and failure possible now and you should find a release for all of that pent up energy you are carrying around with you. Do anything that leaves you tired physically, just as long as you don't injure yourself. The Boy Scout Motto must have been invented during this transit, as it stands for "BE PREPARED," wide awake and alert, as infantile explosions of emotions are probable.

Sudden domestic changes that have been boiling up for some time have to let go and this is what this transit is famous for, as this is the "pressure cooker release mechanism" of the zodiac. You really won't care (at this time) about anything but being free, no matter what form it takes and people will see mood changes in you like Jeckle and Hyde. Unfortunately it will seem more like Heckle and Jeckle! It is an opinion that this is not the time to buy a home, or at least one you will be living in for a long time, as it can be here today and gone tomorrow.

Boredom can breed childish behavior now, or here is the prankster looking to play a practical joke on anyone in their path.

On the health front, ulcers and spasms can occur and exercise would be satisfying to the system or try a message to soothe the nervous system. Mood swings and bitchiness can also be expected.

Those things that have happened in the past can pop up and bring some very unpredictable emotional explosions now and secret unfulfilled desires are awakened to be satisfied.

In romance and marriage there can be separations and since there are so many people in this wide world of ours, you may hear news of a death.

Avoid being arrogant when dealing with others and do not try to manipulate them for your own means, as it will not sit well with them! When talking to people (not at) don't have the mentality of a "baseball bat" when getting your point across and don't push others to accept your ways of thinking, you may not like the results of your actions.

Whatever you do keep your motives, intentions and dealings with others in any area honest, above board and on the right side of the law. You may choose to burn bridges to your past in favor of the future and new beginnings at this time.

Jealousy is a danger with this placement as well as desiring another persons material belongings or good fortune in some way. Intolerance of other peoples feelings will also be in the air so if at all possible do as much as you can for others without expecting anything in return. Chances are nothing will come in return anyway, but give it a try!

Reforming others comes under the gun of influences as well, so be careful of who you are trying to reform as well as your motives for doing so. Even though you aren't the authority here, that won't stop you from thinking you are.

Expect very radical changes in thinking and attitudes which may have you a bit baffled as well as those around you. Other conflicts will be seen in litigation, joint finances, insurance, taxes and alimony. One last word of advice: In your work practice or personal environment it is the smallest of details that is going to trip you up, so dot all "i's" and cross all of those "t's"

This is a MINOR aspect and influence, but it can take on much more importance if it is connected to other negative aspects at the same time.

Practical considerations go out the window and large scale errors in judgement can easily be made, so don't count on anything until you have it firmly in your hand. This can be a great time to diet because you can lose weight easily.

You may very well quit your job because of ego conflicts with authority figures. This is not a good time for gambling, romance or business as FOOLISH OPTIMISM can be your downfall.

Transportation accident levels are on the rise so keep an eye on the road at all times. The need to spend money on needless items, or spending just for the sake of spending will be very strong. Very extravagant, materialistic and arrogant behavior emerges. Say goodbye to the credit line you kept in good shape for so long. By the end of this transit, the money spent on useless items will show you the error of your ways. I know you want something new, but this is not the time to do it, buy it, or try it. Better to deny it! You may feel frustrated over financial shortages which is the result of your spending.

You may find relations with others on again, off again, never seeming to settle into any stable routine and you can experience difficulties in expressing how you feel not only about yourself but others as well. You might notice some water on the knee which can be the source of discomfort, or some congestive problems as well.

Loneliness and depression can be your closest friends now and perhaps that is good because at these very deep times you are given the opportunity to soul search and make the corrections that make you a better person in some way. I have always been under the impression that when you have nothing else to do, look inward. Blocks in expressing yourself and a lack of appetite (sounds like spiritual fasting to me!) exist, but the digestive tract can offer some problems so be careful what you put into the body now. Vegetables and grains would be best. Oh my aching knees! Colds, chills, problems with the teeth and energy that is very low color this transit. Everything seems to have been hit by the STOP button and nothing is happening. Boy can that be frustrating! Finances and business matters can have you very concerned now and do not make any personal changes in your life or look for help in people in authority over you.

Difficulties with parents and authority figures are bound to pop up so handle them as best you can under the circumstances and your relationship with people will not be up to par until the transit ends. Business and financial ventures will experience slowdowns and you may want to withdraw and lick your wounds while not feeling very sympathetic to the problems of those around you.

ALL activities seem to STOP temporarily and this is a transit that was a last minute thought designed by the Universe to be a REAL PAIN IN THE BUTT! Your health may not be at its best now, so have you been overdoing it physically? Now is the time for rest.

Explosive situations can really get out of control at this time and changes are imposed on you now rather than chosen. Use caution as freak accidents can happen now and it's very easy to lose your cool, so watch what you say and do. Uncommon happenings are sure to happen and physical upsets can be experienced. Traffic jams, fires and bad tempered people can be encountered as well.

You may experience annoying impulses to do something that you know is wrong, but it still keeps eating away at you. Outbursts of anger that you experience now will be directed at everyone around you and you will find it very difficult to relate to others. Any interfering that you do in other peoples lives will be very disruptive to all concerned and you may notice fluctuations in your energy levels and have some muscle spasms as well.

Accidents can occur through careless behavior, so avoid working on or near electrical equipment, wiring, appliances, machinery, sharp tools, fireworks or automobiles. Do not give into peer pressure that dares you to do something that you wouldn't normally do. If this is the case, you might want to consider new friends.

Your behavior might cause separations or permanent breakups of relationships, friends and family. Expect nervous tension and an irritable nature to be your friend now, so spend some time by yourself and avoid getting into tiffs with close friends and associates. Temporarily, you are very erratic for no real reason.

This transit is the most frustrating of them all as it brings with it confusion and a sense that you have lost your way. The influence of this transit is one of being enveloped in a cloud of constant negativity and you may find yourself just trying to get a break from yourself. Money becomes nonexistent, but like all things there is a positive side, as it forces you to finish tasks that you have been working on to a successful conclusion. Once this transit ends, then everything goes back to normal income wise etc., whatever normal happens to be!

People will try to make you overreact, so don't fall victim to their ploys, but you won't choose to listen to advice, so do what you have to do. You will be leading a very reckless lifestyle now.

News can come to you of a death. Since there are so many people in the world, it is difficult to avoid isn't it!

Problems in joint finances, insurance, alimony, taxes, nervous stress, conflicts and outbursts are all influences of this transit.

This is a MINOR influence or aspect, but it can take on more importance if it occurs at the same time as other negative aspects.

Community property interests can be upsetting in some way now and business failures can occur now affecting many people. Circumstances beyond your control can easily develop and this is certainly not the time to try to discipline the kids or have a fight with your spouse as things can get way out of hand.

Maintain patience with others during this transit, because Mars loves to agitate things. High energy will be in abundance. You will experience great opposition to people you confront for no reason and challenges to egos will be easy to find. A different course of action is needed for a few days.

Loose ends can trip you up as they always do and ruthless and underhanded behavior can undermine any situation, so try to keep your distance from others. Serious conflicts between individuals can occur now, or you can be a victim of someone else's ruthlessness. Losses will occur through confrontations with others and jealousy and possessiveness can rear their ugly heads as well. Difficulties in taxes, insurance, alimony and sexual prowess are all direct results of this transit

Someone can do something to you at this time that can very well prompt retaliation by you. It seems for now reason the world has an axe to grind with you, and you are left bewildered and angry by the whole thing. You may even decide to sue someone for an injustice done to you now, but the probability of success is slim to none at all.

The danger of contracting diseases (social, sexual or otherwise) and encountering annoyances, physical and verbal abuse is high with this placement. Attacks on others is likely to have a ruthless overtone and trying to institute changes now will meet with great resistance. Impulsive actions are always regretted at a later date, so try your best to avoid them. Be extremely cautious in what you do, as your actions now can have very explosive consequences.

Plut quincunx Mars

Be careful, you may have an overwhelming desire to retaliate against an injustice now, or suffer aggravation over the foolish waste that people don't think about. You can subconsciously provoke arguments with others for the pure fun or it, or use profanity to make a point.

It can seem that the whole world is ganging up on you now, or you may feel that you are the victim of a cruel joke as all of your plans go down the tubes. You may have to resort to suing someone for injustices that occur now, but the chance of success is none to very slim. It is best to take it on the chin and move on, chalking it up to experience. People can call with complaints on your professional performance, newspaper ads can be rejected for publication and the work that you are doing is challenged. Look to the exact time that this transit takes place for the greatest emphasis, ESPECIALLY in retrograde!

Community property interests can be upsetting and business failures can occur now affecting many people. Circumstances will come to you that is beyond your control now and this is not the time to discipline the kids or have a fight with your spouse as things can get way out of hand.

Maintain patience at all costs, because Mars loves to agitate. Hi energy is yours, do something productive with it. There will be great opposition to people you confront and challenges to egos can easily erupt at this time. Loose ends can trip you up, so make sure to double check all projects.

Ruthless and underhanded behavior will get you nowhere now, but some total destruction in some form is possible and this may be a necessary evil for positive changes to begin. Serious conflicts between individuals can take place now, just be careful not to be a victim of someone else's ruthlessness. Violent outbursts in your environment is possible, and losses can occur in confrontations with others.

Aug 10 2017

Jupi quincunx Moon

Don't make promises to anyone at this time that you cannot keep, no matter how sincere your intentions are. It will be easy to overextend your abilities during this transit and domestic projects undertaken now will be more costly than you realized and can have you scrambling for money to do the job. Prices quoted for work done on the home can increase SIGNIFICANTLY, so it would be better let it go until another time.

If you are comfortable at this time and have some extra money to do projects, PLEASE let them go, as projects spur other problems, only costing you more money and leaving you short having to scrape up money. As an example, the author of this material wanted to put stone down in his driveway as a beautification project. All went very well until the dump truck delivering the stone fell through the septic tank, costing an extra $800. which was not in the budget for a $200. job. Get the point?

Other people can become very dependent on you now which can be a real burden unless that happens to be your particular field of work to begin with. Business matters are not your forte because your expectations are very unrealistic and will NOT be met. Overeating and putting on weight are real dangers if you are trying to diet, but on the other hand, since Jupiter rules expansion and the Moon rules the stomach, you may not feel like eating to begin with. You will be more conscious of security matters for the home and taking care of others will become more important.

There may be some problems with the digestive tract and you might notice that your dreams are a lot more vivid than normal, while making no sense at all.

You may notice an inability to think or act clearly because of great emotional responses to your environment and you may also meet someone who may be very sensitive themselves, thereby creating a greater need to be nice! There can also be some slight problems with your vision.

Business and financial efforts should not be forced in any way as losses can result. Postpone new ventures, travel, educational endeavors, legal matters and negotiations for another time. New friendships will be difficult to form and social encounters will be disappointing.

Be careful of too much partying, drinking, extravagance, prejudices and dealings with people as they will not turn out well. Do not change your residence at this time, as it will be a cause for regret later.

Aug 11 2017

Jupi Square Plut

Whatever you do keep your motives, intentions and dealings with others honest, above board and on the right side of the law at this time. You may burn bridges to your past in favor of the future and new beginnings.

There will be an overwhelming need for power over others at this time, just be careful that you don't use people for your own purposes and then discard them. If this occurs around the time of a new love coming into your life, don't let them take the brunt for what your ex did to you. You will notice that you pick up some very bad eating habits at this time as well. Jealousy is a danger with this placement. Be careful of desiring another persons material belongings or good fortune in some way. Intolerance of other peoples feelings will also be in the air so if at all possible do as much as you can for others without expecting anything in return. Chances are nothing will come in return anyway, but give it a try!

Reforming others comes under the gun of influences as well, so be careful of who you are trying to reform as well as your motives for doing so. Even though you aren't the authority here, that won't stop you from thinking you are.

Expect very radical changes in thinking and attitudes which may have you a bit baffled as well as those around you now. Other conflicts will be seen in litigation, joint finances, insurance, taxes and alimony. In your work practices, make sure to take care of all the little details and be especially careful not to overlook anything, because missing the finer points of any project can be your downfall.

Overdue penalties are impossible to escape and can be called due now and things that come to pass now will seem very inevitable and disturbing to you. Avoid fanatical people and protect your valuables against potential theft! Encounters involving power struggles can arise and relationships can be terminated during this transit. Be honest in your business dealings as this time is famous for bringing dishonest dealings out into the open. Compelling urges can prove very destructive to you at this time.

You must use caution now in your quest to be the "power" over others, as fanatical behavior can get out of hand. Impulsive actions, arrogance or physical suffering in some way is highlighted.

Evasion of work for the pursuit of pleasures is the theme of this transit. The expanded love urge is looking for

The most common complaints during this transit are irritability, feeling provoked, arguments and anger. This period is unfavorable for dealing with the public, business and land. The most common health problems are indigestion and stomach problems.

Bitter feelings may have you by the throat at this time because of some unresolved issues that are eating away at you. You are easily provoked so be careful to keep your ears and mouth closed. If someone is chewing you out, imagine yourself meditating, while not hearing a word they say. It's that kind of time period.

Don't make promises to anyone at this time that you cannot keep, no matter how sincere your intentions are. It will be easy to overextend your abilities during this transit and domestic projects undertaken now will be more costly than you realized and can have you scrambling for money to do the job. Prices quoted for work done on the home can increase SIGNIFICANTLY, so it would be better let it go until another time.

If you are comfortable at this time and have some extra money to do projects, PLEASE let them go, as projects spur other problems, only costing you more money and leaving you short having to scrape up money. As an example, the author of this material wanted to put stone down in his driveway as a beautification project. All went very well until the dump truck delivering the stone fell through the septic tank, costing an extra $800. which was not in the budget for a $200. job. Get the point?

Other people can become very dependent on you now which can be a real burden unless that happens to be your particular field of work to begin with. Business matters are not your forte because your expectations are very unrealistic and will NOT be met. Overeating and putting on weight are real dangers if you are trying to diet, but on the other hand, since Jupiter rules expansion and the Moon rules the stomach, you may not feel like eating to begin with. You will be more conscious of security matters for the home and taking care of others will become more important.

There may be some problems with the digestive tract and you might notice that your dreams are a lot more vivid than normal, while making no sense at all.

You may notice an inability to think or act clearly because of great emotional responses to your environment and you may also meet someone who may be very sensitive themselves, thereby creating a greater need to be nice! There can also be some slight problems with your vision.

Business and financial efforts should not be forced in any way as losses can result. Postpone new ventures, travel, educational endeavors, legal matters and negotiations for another time. New friendships will be difficult to form and social encounters will be disappointing.

Jupi Square Moon

Don't make promises to anyone at this time that you cannot keep, no matter how sincere your intentions are. It will be easy to overextend your abilities during this transit and domestic projects undertaken now will be more costly than you realized and can have you scrambling for money to do the job. Prices quoted for work done on the home can increase SIGNIFICANTLY, so it would be better let it go until another time.

If you are comfortable at this time and have some extra money to do projects, PLEASE let them go, as projects spur other problems, only costing you more money and leaving you short having to scrape up money. As an example, the author of this material wanted to put stone down in his driveway as a beautification project. All went very well until the dump truck delivering the stone fell through the septic tank, costing an extra $800. which was not in the budget for a $200. job. Get the point?

Other people can become very dependent on you now which can be a real burden unless that happens to be your particular field of work to begin with. Business matters are not your forte because your expectations are very unrealistic and will NOT be met. Overeating and putting on weight are real dangers if you are trying to diet, but on the other hand, since Jupiter rules expansion and the Moon rules the stomach, you may not feel like eating to begin with. You will be more conscious of security matters for the home and taking care of others will become more important.

There may be some problems with the digestive tract and you might notice that your dreams are a lot more vivid than normal, while making no sense at all.

You may notice an inability to think or act clearly because of great emotional responses to your environment and you may also meet someone who may be very sensitive themselves, thereby creating a greater need to be nice! There can also be some slight problems with your vision.

Business and financial efforts should not be forced in any way as losses can result. Postpone new ventures, travel, educational endeavors, legal matters and negotiations for another time. New friendships will be difficult to form and social encounters will be disappointing.

Be careful of too much partying, drinking, extravagance, prejudices and dealings with people as they will not turn out well. Do not change your residence as it will be a cause for regret later.
